The Barber of Seville at The Keller
$ 165.00 All Inclusive Price
A Sunday Drive to the ballet! The Barber of Seville, one of the most popular ballets ever written, is performing at the Keller Auditorium. Love can be a zany affair. Especially in the hands of Rossini! The lovely, young Rosina is the ward of Dr. Bartolo, a comic old geezer who wants to marry her, but she’d rather marry Count Almaviva, who really wants to marry her too, but he can’t even see her because Bartolo is always there, so what’s a guy to do? Come and see to find out! We’ll indulge in lunch prior to the matinee, then snack on the drive home.

Night Skies at Goldendale
Observatory & Maryhill Museum
$ 304.00 Single $ 515 Double
All Inclusive Price

Anyone interested in being an amateur astronomer (at least for one night)? Goldendale Observatory has one of the largest public telescopes in the country -- large enough for scientific research -- but instead, it is dedicated to sharing the stars with the public. We have located a delightful restaurant for dinner too!

The next day we will sleep in – and then stop at the Maryhill Museum before lunch, on the way back to Central Oregon. The Maryhill Museum of Art was originally a grand mansion built in 1914 - 1926 by eccentric entrepreneur Sam Hill. The museum sits atop a windswept bluff overlooking the Columbia River. A few miles east of Maryhill stands Hill's concrete reproduction of Stonehenge, which he built as a memorial to local men who died in World War I.
